Sweden Denics Officer Suspects

Renfera

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 4—Swedish defense headquarters denied today that any officers questioned in connection with the Wennerstroem spy case were suspected of security breaches.

The spokesman was commenting on a report which said about 30 officers, including some generals, were suspected of negligence or ignoring security regulations.

method of negligence or ignoring security regulations.

The breaches made it possible for Air Force Col. Stig Wennerstroem to carry out alleged spying activities for Russia, the report added. Wennerstroem was arrested last June.
